

Rokas Peciulaitis

Rokas Peciulaitis is a Founder and Managing Partner at Contrarian Ventures. Before Contrarian Ventures he was an inflation and exotic derivatives trader at Bank of America Merrill Lynch based in London. He is also a Chairman of the Lithuanian Venture Capital Association and a board member of the non-profit organization Vilnius Marathon.

His alma maters are: University of Glasgow (M.A. in Economics), University California Santa Barbara and he also completed PE and VC executive programme at Harvard Business School. He is a Kauffman Fellow (Class 25).

Rokas is also a founder of Energy Tech Summit and Climate 50.