

Steven Meersman

Steven Meersman is a Ventures at Contrarian Ventures and a Founder and Director at Zenobē Energy, an infrastructure plus services company enabling utilities and large fleet operators sustainability ambitions by providing capital and expertise. Zenobē operates > 125 electric buses across 6 major metropolitan areas and over 175MW grid-scale batteries.

Prior to Zenobē, he was Global Head of Deals Desk for Puma Energy, a midstream energy company part of the Trafigura Group and active as an advisor with Oliver Wyman, a global management consultancy where he advised on asset investment, optimisation and trading strategy for large integrated energy companies.

He holds a Master in Business Administration from Carnegie Mellon University's Tepper School of Business as well as a Master and Bachelor in Electrical and Mechanical engineering from the Catholic University of Leuven