

Tomas Kentys

Tomas Kentys is a General Partner at Contrarian Ventures. He is involved in all the various things related to running the fund and is also sitting on multiple Boards of Contrarian Ventures portfolio companies.

Before Contrarian Ventures he was an investment banker with Centerview Partners, a leading independent New York and London based advisory firm. Tomas has executed multiple billion-dollar transactions in various industries across the UK, Israel, Jordan, South Africa and the USA.

Other experience includes various positions in BNP Paribas, Société Générale and British Petroleum. His alma maters are: ESADE Business School, University of California San Diego and University of Glasgow.